

YOU GO FIRST! LEADING BY EXAMPLE

KEY LEARNINGS:

When a leader can "walk the talk" and lead by example, how does that benefit the overall workplace? And, on the contrary what are some of the setbacks when an organization is led by a "do as I say, not as I do" leader?

How do personal core values play a role in organizational leadership, if at all?

Examine: Having your team model your behavior is part of a leadership style. What are some of your other leadership styles that can result to a well-managed team or organization?

What I learned?

What I'll do?

What I'll share?
